

MEXICO IN DENIAL OF EXECUTIONS

Say Riots Of No Consequence—May Arrest Archbishop

Mexico City, Aug. 13.—(AP)—The department of war today denied the assertion of Arch Bishop Leopoldo Ruiz y Flores of the State of Michoacan that two priests had been executed by Mexican federal forces in the town of Zahuayo, Michoacan, in connection with the religious controversy.

The statement said there had been no execution of priests anywhere in Mexico. It also minimized the reports of clashes between Catholics and soldiers in the states of Michoacan and Guanajuato.

General Miguel Pena, under-secretary of war, who issued the statement declared the arch bishop's report as exaggerated. There had been no disturbances anywhere "except a few common riots, which have never deserved importance enough to be made known to the public," he said.

The government's committee of financial experts has begun to study the economic situation and the instability of exchange.

The economic boycott called in protest against the government's religious regulations does not appear to have become more serious as far as Mexico City is concerned, but it continues nevertheless to cause considerable depression in business circles.

The Catholic episcopate in reply to the recent report of the party of American "goodwillers," headed by Alva W. Taylor of the Church of Disciples Social Service commission regarding its findings after investigating the religious situation in Mexico, declared it to be "mortifying to Americans residing in Mexico, that American intellectuals come here, to disfigure the truth and mislead the opinion of the American press and people."

Prior to its departure from Mexico City, the "Good Willers" adopted a resolution saying: "We believe a program of education and social reform necessary for the rehabilitation of Mexico. We believe the Calles administration is engaged in a great program of social reform, and that all truly interested in the welfare of Mexico will cooperate in its essential undertakings."

MAY ARREST ARCHBISHOP
Mexico City, Aug. 13.—(AP)—Minister of the Interior Tejeda has issued a statement declaring that an interview alleged to have been given to an American newspaper by the Rev. Mora Del Rio, archbishop of Mexico, violates the clause in the Mexican constitution prohibiting clergymen from criticizing the fundamental laws of Mexico or the Mexican government.

Therefore, says the statement, the interview "has been cited to the attorney general for investigation." This is said to mean that if the attorney general finds the charges justified the government may order the arrest and trial of the archbishop.

CONCESSION TO CATHOLICS
Mexico City, Aug. 12.—(AP)—Mayor Saracho, of Mexico City in the first concession of any kind made to Catholics since the religious conflict began, has decreed that the committees placed in charge of Catholic churches in the capital may be composed of five Catholics and five municipally appointed citizens for each church. Hitherto the committees have been municipal appointees.

Under the new plan, the Catholic committees are to have charge of the management of each church but the municipal committees will assume some responsibility for the property. It is believed this action may somewhat appease the Catholics who have been worshipping in the churches in only small numbers because municipal committees were in charge of them.

FIND BODY OF COOGAN DRIVER ON COOGAN LAND

Chauffeur Who Shot Jackie's Watchman is Found Dead

San Diego, Calif., Aug. 13.—(AP)—An inquest is scheduled here today into the death of Herman Everett Shipley, alias Don McRae, former chauffeur for the family of Jackie Coogan, child film star, whose body was found in a garage at the Coogan ranch near Campo yesterday.

Shipley was sought in connection with the shooting of Joseph Block, a watchman on the lawn of the Coogan home in Los Angeles last Tuesday. Finding of the body followed receipt yesterday morning by Jack Coogan, senior, of a postcard on which was scrawled a message saying that if the Coogan ranch were searched the chauffeur would be found there "cold."

Shipley had been discharged and reemployed several times by the Coogans. He formerly resided in Tip-ton, Iowa, where police said he had a wife and two children. His body will be sent to Tip-ton.

Block, seriously wounded in an exchange of shots with a man he identified as Shipley, has a chance for recovery, physicians say.

JAIL BROTHER AND COUSIN IN HALL'S MURDER MYSTERY

Accuse Relatives of Rec-tor's Widow With Her In Case

Sommerville, N. J., Aug. 13.—(AP)—A cousin and a brother of Mrs. Edward Wheeler Hall were in jail today, held without bail, accused with her of the murder four years ago of her clergyman husband and his sweetheart, Mrs. Eleanor Mills.

"Crazy" Willie Stevens, the brother, and Henry Carpenter, wealthy cousin of the wealthy widow, were arrested last night, two weeks after the arrest of Mrs. Hall, now at liberty in $15,000 bail.

All three have pleaded not guilty. State Senator Simpson, special prosecutor, however, says "we have established a case nothing can destroy."

The arrests were ordered by Mr. Simpson after 57 depositions of witnesses had been taken in a reopened investigation which resulted from the filing of an annulment suit by A. S. Riehl, who alleged that his wife, a former maid in the Hall home, had made damaging confessions to him.

WHITTEMORE DIED TODAY ON GALLOWS

Leader of Million Dollar Crime Trust Died Calmly

Baltimore, Md., Aug. 13.—(AP)—With a simple, clearly enunciated statement—"I wish to say good bye, the best I could wish anybody"—Richard Reese Whittemore, one of the east's most amazingly successful gangsters of recent years, died this morning for the murder of a Maryland penitentiary guard. His body plunged through the gallows trap in the penitentiary death chamber at 12:08 a. m. At 12:22, fourteen minutes later he officially was pronounced dead.

For the leader of what police dubbed a "million dollar crime trust," the end came quickly. Less than 20 minutes had elapsed after he stepped on the scaffold platform at 12:08 when his body, in its casket, was wheeled out of the death chamber. It was claimed by relatives for funeral services at to home of his father, Rawlings V. Whittemore.

Farwell To Relatives
The elder Whittemore and Mrs. Margaret Whittemore, the slayer's wife, bade him farewell several hours before the execution. The youthful gangster after shaking hands with prison officials in the death cell corridor, dropped his last cigarette from his lips and walked steadily through the door leading to the execution platform. A faint smile which was on his face left it when he stood erect over the trap and made his brief statement in a clear voice. The black hood was drawn over his head and his shroud figure had dropped through the platform just two minutes after he had appeared in the narrow doorway above the heads of the witnesses. He died of a broken neck and was pronounced dead by three attending physicians.

Whittemore, serving a 15 year sentence for burglary, fatally beat R. H. Hollman, a sixty-year old guard, with an iron bar Febr. 20, 1925 and walked out of the hospital gate of the penitentiary.

He was hanged within a few yards of the spot where the guard was struck down.

Al Weigle Car Is Damaged In Wreck On Lincoln Highway
The Ford sedan of Al Weigle of this city was badly damaged and the owner considerably shaken up in a collision on the Lincoln Highway near the Twin City pavilion grounds last evening. Mr. Weigle had attended the Woodmen picnic at the pavilion park and was leaving the grounds in his car when he crashed into one of the freight trucks of the Northern Illinois Service company, which was driven by Al. Thompson of Rock Falls. The truck was incapacitated and when it was backed into the park driveway to be towed to a garage here, another car driven by Paul Harms of Palmyra collided with it. The Harms car was also damaged but none of the occupants were injured.

A Hudson sedan driven by Chicago people who were returning home from a western tour, skidded on the brick pavement near the intersection of routes 2 and 6 and the east city limits last evening about 6:30. The rear of the big car struck the curb, crushing one of the wheels, but none of the occupants were injured.

EASTERN STORM FLOODS TUNNELS DELAYS TRAFFIC
New York, Aug. 13.—(AP)—Thousands of Long Island commuters were cut off from their Manhattan Island offices today by flooded railroad tunnels under the East River, still choked with water from last night's storm that took toll of lives and damaged property in New York, New Jersey and southern New England.

Huge pumps were utilized to pump 38,000 gallons a minute from three of the Long Island Railroad tunnels, but they were unable to clear the flooded tracks in time for the morning rush. Connections were made with subway lines, whose tunnels were clear and extra subway trains were put on in an effort to accommodate the crowds.

CHURCHES PLAN TO HOLD UNION MEET ASSEMBLY SUNDAY

Missionary Day at Bible Conference Was Great Success

(Contributed)
In the daily program of the Bible Conference held at the Assembly Park yesterday, Thursday, was Missionary day. The purpose of which was to get first hand reports from able men and women who had spent years in the study of the different countries. The day was as a great world tour for the largest audience during the week of the Bible Conference. The sociological condition of the Asiatic and European peoples was pictured with various colors. Japan with her restlessness and yet her deep desire to reach upward was found to be a mighty factor in the remaking of the world. A great many very important questions center themselves around this little country. Our chief concern is that she shall be Christian and find her place among the ranks of those nations who shall lend toward making our great world a Christian brotherhood. Our Missionaries are America's greatest asset toward international friendships. The only aim of the Missionary is to help bring about an understanding of righteous living.

Russia
This great nation which has created such a turmoil today was analyzed by Norman J. Smith. His living among these people and knowing the change of conditions which have taken place because of the new form of government has meant much to the world order. Out of this chaos must grow a new world for Russia. Our missionary work is helping make a Christian world which shall understand America. The fact of religious liberty in Russia has meant that our people who are now living there can continue their work, but the fact of the edict which says that no outside religions shall be propagated means that all other forms of isms will have to wait. The Russian government is now even printing the Bible for the common people which will make it possible for them to gain an understanding of the truth for themselves. Think of a so-called atheistic nation printing the word of God, even though such is being done from a commercial interest, yet God knows how to use even the enmity of a people for the promotion of his kingdom. The coming years will prove the immense value of the Missionary, and the American people can well afford to make liberal contributions for the work.

The Near East.
A native son of the Armenian people was the speaker at the evening service. His message stirred the great audience to thrills and tears when he pictured the inhuman suffering caused by the Turks. A great people numbering 12 million, because of the World War and the persecution of the terrible Turk, has been reduced to less than one and a quarter million, and now live in tents in a strange land being fed by the gracious hand of Uncle Sam as their saviour in this time of trouble. This people will always live in love and fellowship toward America and will be a great help to spread the good will of love. These people even sing "Our Country" as part of the daily worship because of the help given them through the Near East Relief. It would have been well worth while if we could have had the portrayal of suffering which was given to the Bible Conference printed as the sympathy of the fine heart of the American people would have rejoiced to have heard the hearty "Thank You."

ASHTON BOY HAD FUN WITH COPS; HE PAID FOR IT

Cost Him $75.00 and Costs—Rochelle Man Is Fined

Ernest Kaecker of Ashton was arrested about 1 o'clock this morning south of Franklin Grove after a chase of a few miles in which state motorcycle officers were the winners. He was brought to Dixon and fined $75 and costs by Justice Grover Grant on a charge of speeding.

Sergeant Oliver Kempster and Motorcycle Officer Harold Lenox, were returning from DeKalb at the early morning hour and east of Franklin, Kaecker passed them going at a high rate of speed. The officers started in pursuit and Kaecker was ordered to reach out a side road, turned his car and started east again, turning into Franklin Grove on a gravel road and taking a round about direction. Sergeant Kempster was driving his new Chrysler coupe and was making 70 miles an hour over dirt roads following the Kaecker car, when the race came to a conclusion. Kaecker's car struck a bridge, and is said to have narrowly escaped overturning. At the trial this morning Kaecker is said to have admitted that he knew that the officers had ordered him to stop, but thought he would have some fun with them, his antic proving an expensive one.

ELECTRIC SERVICE WILL BRING FOLKS BACK TO THE FARM

Utilities Survey Claims Back to Farm Movement Is On

Chicago, Aug. 13.—(AP)—A movement away from the cities and to the smaller communities, and even into rural districts is forecast by the electric light and power companies of the Middle West which have completed a survey of electrical conditions in Indiana, Illinois, Michigan, Wisconsin, Minnesota, Iowa, Missouri, Kentucky, and Ohio.

"The pressure of population in urban areas, more uniform distribution of property and the decentralization of industry are bringing about a more even growth of population," the utilities report said. Use of electricity in small towns and rural districts is making life more agreeable continued. Through improved electric transportation and power transmission it is possible for the city worker to live far from his place of employment, enjoy the utility comforts of the urban dweller, and still benefit from the fresh air and open country of the small community.

A population increase of 41 per cent in the nine states within the next twenty-four years, was forecast in the report. This section, it said, will require generation of 63,000,000; 600 kilowatt hours, or almost as much as the total generation of electricity in the United States in 1925. Electrification of all principal railroad terminals in the territory is part of the picture of 1950 sketched in the report and many of the main trunk lines will be electrified.

Utility companies need not expect any great increase in water power in this section, the report declares. It predicts that only 10 to 20 per cent can be produced from water-power, assuming that potential water-power sites are developed and working at full theoretical capacity during the time of regional peak.

"It should be noticed also that the principal water powers remaining undeveloped in 1925 are located in the north and south ends of the territory, a considerable distance from the largest centers of consumption," the survey reads. Michigan is expected to have the greatest population increase, estimated at 53 per cent. The population of the Wolverine state will jump from 2,698,400 in 1920 to 4,100,000 in 1950, the electrical investigators venture.

Modern Woodmen In Big Picnic Thursday

Thursday afternoon and evening, Aug. 12th, Dixon Camp No. 56 Modern Woodmen of America staged one of the best picnics held in Northern Illinois. Delegations were present from practically every camp within a radius of fifty miles, however the attendance was cut down on account of weather. The afternoon was spent with various amusements, and basket supper was enjoyed in the old-fashioned neighborly style. The festivities were interrupted by an accident on hard road in which Allen Weigle, an old member of Dixon Camp, was injured. The evening program consisted of exhibition drills by Forester teams from Lee Center Camp, No. 1036, Franklin Grove Camp No. 45, and Dixon Camp. The Lee Center team was in charge of Chief Forester V. F. Schnell. The Franklin Grove team with the Camp Drum Corps was in charge of Chief Forester Kneiss. Dixon team was in charge of Chief Forester Ryan. Following drills the crowd estimated at two thousand enjoyed dancing until midnight. In the Charleston contest the first prize was awarded to Miss Dorothy Jane Irey, Dixon and the second prize was divided between Miss Margaret Lahey of Dixon, and Leslie T. Stultz of Franklin Grove.

This picnic is the starting point for the fall and winter campaign for Lee county during which Dixon Camp expects to secure two hundred new members. Among the visitors present was Neighbor C. F. Huthmacher, Assistant Editor of Modern Woodmen Magazine who drove from Rock Island to secure first hand information for the September issue of the society's magazine which is just ready for press.

MANY ARE KILLED AS AMMUNITION PLANT EXPLODES

Think Big Blast Was Set By Communists For Revenge

Budapest, Aug. 13.—(AP)—It is reported that 20 persons were killed in an explosion yesterday on Shepel Island, a short distance from Budapest, in an ammunition factory.

It is estimated that about 30 tons of powder exploded. The concussion was so great that windows were broken in Budapest, 18 miles away. It is reported that hundreds of persons over a wide area were injured by flying tile and falling chimneys.

While firemen have succeeded in localizing the blaze, it is impossible to confirm reports of loss of life owing to the large area covered by the factory and the intense heat from the burning buildings.

COMMUNIST ACTS
Vienna, Aug. 13.—(AP)—The Hungarian government today minimized reports of the severity of yesterday's explosion on Shepel Island which stated that 29 persons had been killed. It is known however, that the immense Manned-Weiss ammunition plant was destroyed.

The Arbeiter Zeitung was informed that the explosion was the work of communists avenging a recent sentence of 8 years of a Russian named Rakoski.

An official report says that 24 workmen believed dead were discovered to be safe but that the explosion had made them deaf and dumb and shell shocked.

Thirty four persons are known to have been badly injured and 200 slightly.

MURDERED WIFE AND DARED THE COPS TO SHOOT

Stood in Window With Babies in His Arms—Finally Arrested

Cincinnati, O., Aug. 13.—(AP)—Scott Workman, 40, a farmer who shot and killed his wife Nora, 38, at their home near New Richmond, Ohio, today, was taken to the Batavia, Ohio, jail this afternoon after he had defied Sheriff Crosswell and a posse to arrest him.

Sheriff Crosswell, after being held at bay for some time ignored the threats of Workman, entered the house and placed the slayer under arrest.

The Workman children, led by Frances, 18, the eldest, had fled from the house after their mother was slain.

First news of the tragedy was taken to the village of New Richmond and townsfolk quickly gathered their arms and organized. County officials soon laid siege to the home. In the meantime other Workman children had fled. They are Myrtle, 7, Osa, 14, Ernest, 10, Hazel, 8, and Virginia, 7.

County officials said Workman recently had been arrested for bootlegging.

Feared He'd Lose Children
It was planned to take the children away from the parents and it was this that prompted Workman to his crime, officials said.

After upbraiding the mother of his nine children for what he imagined was her part in seeking to break up the household, the children said, he suddenly fired five shots into her body. When the mother fell dead, the nine children set up terror stricken cries. This seemed only to excite the father who brandished his pistol and threatened to shoot them all.

DEFIED POSSE TO SHOOT
Cincinnati, O., Aug. 13.—(AP)—With the body of his wife at his feet, Scott Workman, 40, a farmer, paced back and forth before the windows of his little farm house near New Richmond, Ohio, today, defying Sheriff Crosswell of Clermont county and a posse of 100 men surrounding the house, to fire at him and two babies, youngest of nine children, which he held in his arms.

STATE DEPT. LOOKS INTO MEX DISPUTE

New Mexican Law Claims Government Owns All Coal

Washington, Aug. 13.—(AP)—The petition of the Knights of Columbus for diplomatic intervention in the Mexican religious controversy was received today by Secretary Kellogg who said afterward that he had "nothing to say."

Ranking officials of the order remained in conference with the secretary for a long time, but they likewise refused to comment when they emerged.

Mr. Kellogg probably will talk over the whole Mexican situation with President Coolidge at White House Camp before there is any pronouncement of policy.

Washington, Aug. 13.—(AP)—The United States government's first official contact with the religious controversy in Mexico came today in the form of a conference between Secretary of State Kellogg and J. J. Flaherty, supreme knight of the Knights of Columbus.

Conditions in the southern republic—the oil land dispute, the religious crisis and the latest imprisonment of an American citizen without hearing on an unspecified charge—occupied the attention of the secretary as he prepared to leave tomorrow for White Pine Canyon to discuss foreign relations with President Coolidge.

Flaherty bore to the department for the consideration of the secretary a resolution adopted at the recent Philadelphia convention of the Knights, asking that the United States intervene to protect Catholic churchmen in their argument with President Calles.

Sharing interest with his visit was the report of a Mr. Sheffield that he had intervened with the Mexican foreign office on behalf of J. H. Grande, Los Angeles fruit dealer, who has been held since his arrest a week ago. The ambassador called to the attention of the Mexican authorities that this was a violation of the Mexican constitution.

GOVERNMENT CLAIMS COAL

Mexico City, Aug. 13.—(AP)—The Mexican government now rules coal deposits national property, as it recently declared petroleum to be the property of the nation and not of the land holder. The new mining laws, which have just gone into effect by publication, declare that all commercially valuable minerals and precious stones are the property of the nation.

These laws will have a tremendous effect on the mining industry of Mexico in which hundreds of millions of dollars of American money have been invested. Their full effect is not yet apparent. American mining men will be more or less at sea until the laws have been interpreted and actually applied. Apparently existing concessions will be affirmed or new concessions issued to cover such grants.

Fear Former Dixon Woman Has Met With Tragedy in the West

Police of Sacramento, Cal., and other western cities are conducting a search for Mrs. Bessie Fee, wife of John F. Fee, formerly of this city, according to word received here. A dispatch from Sacramento explaining the disappearance of the woman follows:

"Sacramento police and those of other interior cities were appealed to join in the search for Mrs. Bessie Fee, wife of John F. Fee, secretary of the Yuba-Sutter Young Men's Christian association at Marysville, who mysteriously disappeared after taking a stage from that point to Sacramento."

Fee and his wife were planning a trip to southern California and were to meet here. She carried a considerable sum of money and foul play is feared."

Mr. and Mrs. Fee left Dixon about 30 years ago. Mr. Fee while employed at the Henderson shoe company's plant here, became quite active in the local Y. M. C. A. work and later attended the training school and for some time was located at Grand Rapids, Mich., later going to California.

For several years past some of the farmers in Harmon Township have disposed of the old wire on the Highway fence by throwing the same in the Highway.

In grading the roads this wire is encountered with the backhoe. I would appreciate it very much if the parties following this practice heretofore would discontinue the same. I will call your attention to Section 143 in the Road and Bridge Law with respect of depositing of trash, war-broken bottles, cans, etc.

Men and Women of Klan Met Last Eve

Last evening five or six hundred Klansmen and Klanswomen gathered on a knoll in a field west of Dixon, and burned a huge fiery cross. The cross could be seen at a long distance as a mysterious sight as the hundreds of robed knights and ladies circled around the light.

The inspiration of all Klans was carried out a very delightful program.

It was put on by the Juniors, Tri-Klax and was enjoyed by all. After the program delicious refreshments were served to all by the Klanswomen.

At about 10:30 o'clock the happy throng carried out the last of their program by driving to Dixon and presenting an American Flag to the Memorial Arch. After the flag had been placed on the arch, all sang the national anthem, "America," and all gave pledge to Old Glory.

There were several visitors present from out-of-town, Sterling being well represented.—Contributed.

GIRLS OF LISBON SHATTER TRADITIONS OF OLDER TIMES
Lisbon, Aug. 12.—(AP)—The women of Portugal slowly are emerging from the almost Moorish seclusion in which they have lived so long, and the first they do, under the new freedom, is to go to work. The shops and offices of Lisbon are besieged these days by girls eager to follow in the footsteps of their sisters in other countries, and earn their own livings.

Much had to be overcome by these Lisbon girls. There was the resistance and ill-will of the masculine element, grounded in the precedent of many centuries, and a large group of minor state officials, in fear of their own jobs, voiced violent opposition.

In the schools also Portuguese girls have won their victories. They have exploded old traditions, and today are taking their places on the benches along with their brothers.

At 8 o'clock Sunday morning, Rev. L. V. Sitter of the Methodist Church of Franklin Grove, united the lives of Miss Mary Ellen Naylor, daughter of A. B. Naylor, and Mr. Abram Gilbert, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Gilbert.

The ceremony was performed in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Riddlebarger, grandparents of the bride. The guests present were: A. B. Naylor, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Gilbert, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Smith, Rev. and Mrs. L. V. Sitter, all of Franklin Grove, Mr. and Mrs. Winters of Dixon—cousins of the bride; and Mr. and Mrs. Whitnower of Lee Center.

They left for Dunkirk, Iowa, to visit with her sister, Mrs. Ralph Canale, and other relatives, and will be at home to their many friends on the groom's father's farm, north of town.

LUNCHEON—Molded beet salad, whole wheat bread, chilled watermelon, milk, tea.

DINNER—Baked sea bass, lima beans in cream, fruit salad, chilled rice pudding, graham bread, milk, coffee.

Molded Beet Salad.
Three beets, ½ cup sugar, 1 lemon, ½ teaspoon salt, 1 head celery, 1½ tablespoons granulated gelatine, 1 fresh sweet green pepper, lettuce, salad dressing.

Scrub beets and cook in boiling water for 20 minutes. Drain, dip into cold water and slip skin. Cut in small pieces and cook in boiling water to cover until very tender. Rub through a sieve. There should be 2½ cups of beet puree. Reheat to the boiling point and stir in gelatine soaked in 4 tablespoons cold water for 10 minutes. Remove at once from the fire and stir until gelatine is dissolved. Add lemon juice, salt and sugar. Turn into tiny individual molds and let stand several hours until chilled and firm. Wash celery and cut. Let stand in ice water two or three hours. Dry between towels when wanted. Unmold beet jelly on a bed of lettuce carefully washed and crisped. Surround with celery and shreds of green pepper. Top each mold with a spoonful of salad dressing and serve.

Important for Children and Grown-Ups Alike

HOW you feel all morning depends largely on what you eat for breakfast. Thousands have unenergetic forenoons because of wrong breakfast eating.

To feel right, you must have a well-balanced, complete breakfast ration. At other meals—lunch and dinner—you get it. But breakfast is hurried—often badly chosen.

Thus Quaker Oats, containing 16% protein, food's great tissue builder, 58% carbohydrate, its great energy element, plus all-important vitamins and the "bulk" that makes laxatives seldom needed, is the dietetic urge of the world today.

Don't deny yourself the natural stimulation this rich food offers you. Get Quaker Oats today. Grocers have two kinds: Quick Quaker, which cooks in 3 to 5 minutes, and Quaker Oats.

Kingdom-Mt. Union Aid Society Meeting

The Kingdom-Mt. Union Aid Society held a meeting at the Community house, Wednesday and enjoyed a picnic dinner. The attendance was not very good owing to the fact that many members were forced to attend to other business, but those present enjoyed the afternoon. As the president was absent there was no business meeting. A few aprons were cut out to be taken home and finished for the bazaar next fall. There will be no meeting at the regular time, which would be in two weeks, but the next meeting will be held in three weeks, Sept. 1.

SPENT SUNDAY WITH MRS. HOLLISTER

Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Worsley and family of near Triumph, and Mrs. Robert Atkinson and children and Mr. and Mrs. August Johns and daughter spent Sunday with Mrs. C. E. Hollister.

MISS ARBITSON GUEST OF COUSINS

Miss Marguerite Arbitson of Brooklyn, N. Y., is in Dixon visiting her cousins, Misses Ann Marie and Ruth Worthington.

WARBURG LEAGUE TO MEET TUESDAY

The Warburg League of the Immanuel Lutheran church will meet Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock at the church.

CHOIR PRACTICE TONIGHT

The choir of the Christian church will meet this evening at 7:30 at the church to practice.

ARE GUESTS AT LOWELL PARK LODGE

Phil Rising and party of Chicago are guests at Lowell Park Lodge.

HOUSEHOLD SUGGESTIONS—BLOUSED BODICE

All of the most striking new fall evening gowns show the bloused bodice and full skirt. Many have bands and draperies intended to emphasize the hips. In an apparent revolt against the cult of slenderness.

VELVETEEN JACKETS

A velveteen jacket worn over a straight dress of crepe de chine in harmonizing shade makes an ideal sport costume for early fall.

FUR-TRIMMED

New fall coats are heavily fur-trimmed.

Novel Trimming

The newest among necks is the square trimming with a triangle cut out in front and finished with a straight line in back.

FEATHER BOAS

Paris is excited over the feather boa, which has appeared at many smart garden parties, in two or three shades of feathers, tied with matching velvet ribbons.

BANGLES OF CRYSTAL

Several bangles made of white crystal beads with pendants may be worn on one wrist, while the other boasts bracelets of silver or platinum. Gold and crystal are a bad combination.

VOILE LINGERIE

A new, fine voile has appeared to meet the demand for a soft cotton lingerie material. It is trimmed with simple lace or hemstitching.

COAT DRESSES

Coat dresses of tulle are scheduled for fall. These are slightly bloused in the back, but have a straight front line, broken only by a belt or girde. The facings are of self-colored chiffons and crepe de chine.

LOUNGING ROBES

Long lounging robes of heavy black satin have vivid tufted borders of orange or peacock blue or emerald. These heavy borders give a graceful swing to the hem. Sleeves are long and flowing.

SHADED COSTUMES

Two or three shades of the same color are an interesting feature of smart French street frocks. Browns and blues are especially lovely in combination with burnt orange or rust.

SILVER AND MIST

claim blatantly that I am an American. How dreadful it is!

"I have been looking around and doing all the shopping that I could for the girls but I have done what I would like to do because I really hesitate to spend much money under the circumstances. It seems such a shame to take advantage of the exchange, and while I might pass for a French woman with a great many people, the natives here know that I am a foreigner and I dread a scene. I have seen so many."

Junior Guptill's Birthday Observed

Junior Guptill, little four year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Guptill of Douglas avenue, celebrated his fourth birthday last evening, a company of friends gathering at the home where they enjoyed radio music and games, and later the tempting refreshments of ice cream, cake and candy.

The guests present included: Mrs. Will Adams, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Weaver, Mr. and Mrs. Lionel Cable, Harry Sweetzer, and the youngsters present were: LeRoy Adams, Kenneth Adams, Robert Adams, Harold Witzel, Ethel Mae Weaver, and Junior Oberg of Brookville.

CONVERSATION.

It was Colton who said "conversation is the music of the mind." A set of intellectual orchestra, he styled it, where-in all the instruments should bear a part but none should play together. We do not believe Walter Colton, who graduated from Yale in 1822, would apply such a definition to-day. His defining fixes a standard for mental intercourse far above that which is commonly reached today. Doubtless were Colton writing of 1926 instead of 1826, he would have said conversation was "talk," for such it is with the majority of us.

Talk that is cheap and empty has supplanted true conversation with all but a very few. Conversation is on the wane. It is as out of date as bustles and as infrequently heard as the Indian tomtom. Conversation is a lost art. No longer do people converse for the interchange of ideas. Rather, endless petty discussions of personalities seems to be the only fruition from the expressed ideas of former times.

We of today would so much rather know what kind of fish the President caught than to learn what he said in his latest address. The recent attempts to swim the English channel concerns us more than the recent attempts to save the French franc. Rudolph Valentino's banalities occupies a large place in our thoughts and thought expression than does the earnest effort of General Dawes to bring about a revision of archaic senate rules. Given the batting average of Babe Ruth, or the running time of Bubbling Over, and we yarn at persons interested in perpetuating our unexampled history in such form as to make it readily available to perpetuating our unexampled history in such form as to make it readily available to posterity. The crafty dodging of Dempsey seems of greater moment than the African jungle successes of Carl Ackley. Who wants to discuss the agricultural situation or the constant encroachment of government into private industry when we can sing about animal crackers?

Try to advance some sound information on a present day problem when paying a social call and some member of the group will turn on the radio. Ideas are passe. To suggest in conversation with one's neighbor that everything in the world is not for the best, or that something might better be changed, means to make of one's self one of three things: an unutterable bore, a calamity howler or a radical. To be popular, particularly among youth, one must chatter personalities endlessly and always personalities. To speak of Good-speed's translation of the Bible is to draw the sole reward of a vacant stare, but to mention Douglas Fairbank or to recount Fawcett's latest froth brings an eye sparkle and a continuation of the subject.

We are of the opinion that all this is the inevitable concomitant of too much printing. As a nation we are being published into mental senility. Paper and ink are so cheap today, and the processes of printing so automatized, that the publishing industry now ranks fifth among all industries in the United States. Result? Hundred of thousands of the hundreds of thousands of newspapers, magazine and periodicals that are daily, weekly and monthly foisted upon the long-suffering public, are either left unread or accorded a very superficial attention. So much to read is there that one cannot read what one's neighbors or friends are reading. As a consequence, when you talk of what you have read you are talking on a subject strange to your companion. Being strange, it bores him. Sensing the boredom, you withdraw the subject and start on golf or one-piece bathing suits merely to be mutual.

Abraham Lincoln's early library consisted of three books: one on America government, Bunyon's Pilgrim Progress, and the Bible. And he was as well (or better) supplied as the average 1825 citizen. People in those days read the same thing, studied the same speeches. They did because there was only one "thing to read and only one speech to study. This made subjects of conversation mutual interesting, and rendered conversation the interchange of ideas.

We cannot help but wonder if our superabundance of literature, good and bad, our superficial knowledge of things, and our very apparent lack of sound ideas does not, or will not, lead to superficial thinking and shallow reasoning. Certainly the habit of superficial reasoning, if become a national characteristic, possesses enormous potentialities for harm—can contribute nothing to either individual or national welfare.

ON THE AIR

Last Monday Night Was Rare For Radio Reception Here

Chicago, Aug. 13.—(AP)—Volume from a distance that rivaled, in some cases, that produced locally, greeted those radio fans who tuned in on Chicago's silent night. So numerous were the stations which could be logged last Monday night that almost every spot on the dial was giving forth music or speech.

The night was just like many others which the summer has produced. Signals were steady and fading of a minor character. Static was there, of course, but with strong signals no one seemed to be worried. Outside of these ever present detriments to ideal radio the air was full to overflowing.

Such stations as WJZ, Bound Brook, N. J.—nearly always with us on Monday nights no matter the conditions—KDKA, Pittsburgh, WBZ, Springfield, Mass., WPG, Atlantic City, N. J. and a few others needed only a loud speaker for recording. Headphones were unnecessary unless one wanted an ear splitter.

All directions but the west did their share in enlivening the silent night. One could hear the west for a certain distance but signals from this direction could not step along with those from other points of the compass.

The reason back of one of the best nights of the summer, and the winter for that matter, might be productive of many theories, but there's one that sticks out. Sky scientists told Monday of a comet shower due the next day. Maybe these comets were peeping up their rival speedsters, the radio signals.

By the way, the hourly average of station logging was increased, in one instance, from 10 to 26.

Her Own Way.
A STORY OF A GIRL OF TODAY

Just then Joan came back on the porch from telephoning and he could say no more.

She immediately asked Jerry if he would book us passage on the next steamer early in the morning.

"Of course, I will do that, Miss Meredith, if you think you will want it, but honestly if I were you I would wait until I knew something about the settlement of the estate."

Joan looked annoyed. I imagined it was the first time in her life that a man in the same station as herself in life had not started immediately at her command to make her wishes come true.

I hastened to explain.

"You see, Joan, Mr. Hathaway seems to think it rather strange that you have not had anything said to you by anyone, not even your stepfather, about the final settling of your estate. You know you probably have many millions of dollars in many different securities and real estate holdings and it will take a long while to get these all in proper shape. Have you seen Mr. Elkins lately?"

"Some way I have a faint recollection that Josiah Elkins is very ill," interrupted Jerry, "and that his son has taken over as much of his business as possible. This may possibly account for Miss Meredith's not hearing about her business."

"Well, we will find this all out in the morning," I said. "Joan, Mr. Hathaway suggests that we visit Mr. Elkins' office in the morning and notify them that we will expect a settlement on the seventeenth, which is a day after tomorrow."

This seemed to suggest but one thing to Joan Meredith.

TRADED PLAYERS MAKE MANAGERS PRETTY SICK NOW

Murray, Traded By Yanks To Washington, Trims Them Good

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Many a baseball manager's heart is aching this season because of successes scored by players they have allowed to go to other clubs.
There is Hack Wilson of Chicago and Billy Southworth of St. Louis who would be desirable in the New York Giants outfield. There is Bill Jacobson sent to the Boston Red Sox by the Browns and Howard Ehmke who escaped from the Red Sox and allied himself with the Athletics. Miller Huggins of the Yanks, now leading the American League undoubtedly would appreciate the services of Carl Mays who is pitching splendid ball in Cincinnati's bid for the National League pennant.

Murray Shows 'Em Up
There are many other cases, but the transfer who looms today is George Murray obtained by Washington from the Yanks. Yesterday the league leaders fell before the Senators for the third time in two days 5-2 and Murray was the man on the Washington mound. He granted the sluggers only three hits, none of them by Babe Ruth. In fact the Babe struck out once.

Philadelphia presented Ehmke against his former teammates in the first contests of a double header and the veteran scored tremendously with a 5-1 decision. He permitted five hits and only Jacobson could find him thrice.

Then in the second game Eddie Rummel was his old powerful self and gave the opposition the same number of safe blows for a 5-0 decision. Al Simmons of the Macks hit two doubles and a single for a perfect average in this contest.

Cleveland gained ground on the Yankees by shutting out Chicago 5-0 with Miller keeping nine hits well guarded.

St. Louis bunched hits in three innings to down Detroit 7-2. Wally Schang, former Yankee hitting a home run.

Cincinnati and Philadelphia played the only game in the National League and honors went to the Reds 9-2.

The Fat Boy Shows Them How to Cover Tennis Court Fast

Chicago, Aug. 13—(AP)—A New York youngster whose decidedly chunky build, departs from tennis tradition was the favorite among today's four semi-finalists in the national junior championships.

Julius Seligson won the rating when the biggest upset of the tourney advanced him to the penultimate play with Emmet Fare of Chicago, Robert Sells of San Francisco and John Doeg of Santa Monica, California.

Lean and bronzed Berkeley Bell of Austin, Texas had his flashy chop at top form yesterday, but it did not save him from an unexpected and crushing defeat at the hands of Seligson who was seeded fifth where his opponent was rated at the top of the draw. The stocky customer covered the court in a fashion little short of marvelous, banged all of Bell's clever shots back and eventually swept the tourney favorite off his feet with scores of 6-3 and 6-2.

Fights Last Night

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Milwaukee—Pinkey Mitchell, Milwaukee, junior welterweight champion, defeated Tommy White, Fort Worth, Texas (9); Sid Kelley, Milwaukee, outpointed Harry Soo Fong Bill, Des Moines (6).

Rockford—Jimmy Busco, New York bantam, won from Pal Moore, Memphis on a foul (9); Dick Watzl, St. Paul, outclassed Billy O'Brien, Rockford (8).

Cleveland—Johnny Farr, Cleveland featherweight won over Chick Suggs, New Bedford, Mass. (12); Johnny Hill, Filipino featherweight knocked out Joe Pagnano, Louisville (8).

DUNDEE VS MCGRAW
New York, Aug. 13—(AP)—Johnny Dundee, for 17 years the recipient of punches in the prize ring, tonight faces the rough and capable Phil McGraw of Detroit in a 12 round bout at the Coney Island Stadium.
Dundee will weigh about 130 pounds. At the age of 33, the retired featherweight champion seeks more title honors.

SIDELIGHTS

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The Chicago White Sox will have a "battle" on their club next season. It is James Battle, a third baseman from Paris, Tex., who will report in the spring and is expected to give somebody a battle for a regular berth.

The Illinois Northern Utilities company baseball team of the Factory Twilight League wrested the second position from the J. I. Case company team at the Brown Field last evening before a large crowd of fans by a score of 11 to 1. Both teams presented a padded lineup, Liewald of the Dixon State hospital team, opening the game in the box for the plowmen. Two bases on balls, seven hits and one error gave the I. N. U. employees seven scores in the opening frame. Four more runs were added in the second inning and Liewald gave away to Shook, also of the state hospital corps, who finished the contest.

"Smookey Joe" Miller was in excellent form for the Utilities team and but one run was gathered from his offerings. The absence of "Buck" Lightner, regular twirler for the plow makers was keenly felt.

FASTEST CRAWLER

Lamar, Mo.—Frank Horton is the world's champion crawler. On a recent afternoon he went around the square on his hands and knees in exactly 20 minutes. It's 2000 feet around. Frank did it on a wager, won the wager and now he'll buy a new pair of corduroy pants.

SIT DOWN, SIR EDWARD

London.—When Sir Edward Elgar, the noted British composer, recently had an inspiration as he was riding atop a London bus, he began humming the tune, but was interrupted by an old lady who offered him her seat, saying: "You feel ill, don't you?"

Here it is — THE NEW SOAP

That Smashed All Tradition!

A Finer, Purer, Bigger Cake of Soap at No Extra Cost

For years the famous Kirk chemists have been working on a special white soap that would do more work with less rubbing.

Now they have succeeded. The result is Kirk's American Family Super-White Soap—a mammoth sized bar of soap that is simply amazing in effect.

Buy 1 bar and try it. Wash your hands, your face, your hair with it. Try it on dainty garments. Use it for rough laundering.

In every case you will enjoy results that ordinary white soaps can't approach.

And note the over-size cake—another great economy.

Your dealer has American Family Super-White Soap. Ask him for it.

A THOUGHT FOR TODAY

Even in laughter the heart is sorrowful; and the end of that mirth is heaviness.—Prov. 14:13.

Air Service Enlists Aid of Old Stereoscope

Dayton, O., Aug. 11.—(AP)—The stereoscope, that parlor thriller of the nineties, has come back strong, and in a field where it may save lives. The stereoscope has joined the U. S. Army Air Service.

There are times in war when the topography of a tract of land is as important to an army as the layout of fields and buildings, and ordinary photographs do not show topography well. Now the aerial photographer takes one shot and then a second a hundred feet or so farther on. When he lands, the two photographs are placed in a powerful and specially built stereoscope that makes little hills stand up until they almost poke the gazer in the eye.

Gullies and ravines, indistinguishable in an ordinary photograph, yawn ominously when viewed under the stereoscope.

VISION OF VIRGIN

Berlin—On the statement of two girls who said they saw the vision of the Virgin while praying, a little town near here has become overrun with crippled, maimed and blind who expect cures.

14 CHILDREN BEFORE 26

Hollister, Cal.—Mrs. Joseph Churchill, 107 years old, does her own housework and cooks the meals for her husband, 89, whom she married forty-nine years ago. She sews without glasses. Only one of fourteen children born to a previous marriage is alive. All of them were born before she was twenty-six years old.

You should use Heale. Nothing equals it this hot weather for aching, tired feet.

Before you start on your auto trip take out a Dixon Telegraph Accident Insurance Policy.

Thompson and Miss V. Helen Fox. A very enjoyable and profitable week was spent. Swimming and tennis were the main recreation features enjoyed.

Their tour will take them through Canada via the Great Lakes, then down into Pennsylvania, where they will stop over at Philadelphia to take in the sesqui-centennial. They will also visit relatives at New Jersey before returning home.

A pretty wedding of much interest to friends and relatives in Compton was solemnized Thursday, Aug. 5 at 2 o'clock at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Frank King of Rochelle. At this time their daughter, Lucy Boynton and Gladwyn F. Miller were married. The Rev. Zeigler of Chicago officiating and the ring ceremony being used. The young couple were attended by Mrs. Helen Peterman, sister of the bride as matron of honor and by A. James Luther of Chicago, a college friend of the bridegroom, as best man. Little Miss Carolyn Beebe, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Beebe of Stillman Valley, acted as flower girl. The bride was lovely in a gown of white georgette made up with lace. Her long tulle veil was held by a band of orange blossoms and she carried a shower bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley. The matron of honor, Mrs. Peterman, wore her wedding gown of two years ago and carried pink roses. Little Miss Beebe was dressed in pink silk.

After the impressive Presbyterian ceremony a two course wedding luncheon was served. The King home was decorated with a profusion of beautiful gladiolus. Mrs. Miller is one of Rochelle's most popular young ladies. She attended Rockford College after being graduated from Rochelle High school and has been teaching at Stillman Valley. Mr. Miller attended the University of Wisconsin and for the past three years has been at Chicago where he finished his college work at Lewis Institute last June. In September he will take up his duties as principal of the High School at Kings, Ill.

ABE MARTIN

What you don't know won't hurt you. It's often what you can tell that shortens your days. Now then, if that Angelus Temple radio operator can't play the trombone the solution of that California kidnapping mystery ought to be cleared up in a half an hour.

LILLIE JANE BAUER

Mrs. Bauer was born in the vicinity of Compton, Ill., a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James P. Anglemier. She was born on April 1, 1879 and died on August 8, 1926 at the age of 47 years, 4 months and 7 days. She lived her entire life in this vicinity.

She was united in marriage to Gustave G. Bauer on March 31, 1897. To this union there was born one son, Irving Newall Bauer, born April 12, 1898.

Besides the husband and son there remains to mourn her loss her father, James P. Anglemier, seven brothers: Frank, Chicago; Arthur, Sycamore, Ill.; Frank, San Jose, Cal.; Russell, Rochester, N. Y.; Earl, Missoula, Mont.; Robert, Pontiac, Mich.; and Orville of Rochelle. Also two sisters, Mrs. Fanny Sibole of Marinette, Wis. and Mrs. Zelma Swope of Compton.

She also has been an active member of the Eastern Star lodge for many years.

She was a devoted wife and mother and her untimely death came to bring relief from the unusual suffering she was called on to endure during the last year of life. The devotion of her husband who was almost constantly by her side, and the best of medical and surgical skill could not stay the hand of death, and early Sunday morning she was called to that "house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens."
